"SNOW COTILLION" HANDSOME AND MERRY SOCIETY EVENT

Outdoor Circle's Entertainment Proves Success in Spite of Inclement Weather

Society turned out in large numbers last night for the "Snow Cotillion," offered by the Outdoor Circle as its annual large social entertainment.

The Roof Garden of the Young Hotel was so transformed by art, science and taste that when the crowds alighted from the elevator, after coming in from a rainy, blustery evening, they immediately forgot the weather. They were ushered into a snow-covered garden, the imitation being lifelike enough to cause some realistic shivering.

The dancing platform, in the center of the Roof Garden, was particularly well flanked with snowbanks, snowmen and other accompaniments of a holiday season in a chilly clime, and the gay Oriental lanterns and mingled colors of the decorative scheme added bizarre and lively touches.

Many pretty and several novel steps were danced by the members of the cotillion set, which was led by Hermann and Mary von Holt. The favors were Christmas berries and red poin-ciana leaves for the first figures, white boas and red toboggan caps for the second, white muffs and red horns for the third and red reins with jingly sleigh bells and red whips and white balloons for the last.

In this the girls drove their partners. Some of the one-step variations noticed were particularly attractive.
 Many of the figures were too short and the large and admiring crowd was just ready to encore the cotillion and ask to see parts of it again when a "snowball" fight, with cotton balls, started from the dancers and immediately spread to the crowd. Laughing young men and girls took it up in all parts of the Roof Garden, the elders joined in and soon the snowballing was general, soon putting an end to any thought of continuing the cotillion with an encore, which was a great pity.

After the cotillion the floor was crowded with dancers from the audience, as well as those in the cotillion set. Later supper was served in the mauka pavilion and following this dancing was indulged in until midnight.

Those in the cotillion were:
 Misses Mary von Holt, Ruth Anderson, Ruth McChesney, Martha Mc-Chesney, Pauline Schaefer, Marjorie Capps, Katherine Williams, Stephanie Wichman, Thelma Murphy, Nora Swamy, Laura Low, Elizabeth Rosenbaum, Margaret Thurston, Doris Noble, Dorothy Harker, Madame Lester, Messrs. Hermann von Holt, "Bob" White, Lieut. W. H. Britton, Capt.
 Tilghman, Howard Worrall, William Warren, P. Schaefer, Lieut. Guyer, Douglas Young, George Bennett, Richard Whitecomb, Lieut. Haw, Harry Parker, "Bob" Purvis, Hogarth Petti-John, Ransford.

Madame Lester trained the dancers.
 The management of the affair was in general charge of Miss Bertha Young, assisted by Mrs. C. C. von Hamm, Mrs.
 A. A. Young, Mrs. C. F. Chillingworth, Mrs. F. E. Richardson and others.
 Miss Jessie Kennedy made the cotil-lion favors. Arthur F. Wall designed and superintended the carrying out of the very handsome decorative winter scheme.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If Peevish, Feverish and Sick, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative" and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

 ings by W. A. Coulter were sold Thursday by Jas. F. Morgan Company, auctioneer. The balance of his paintings are to be shipped back to New York.

Among the purchasers of art works by Coulter at the auction sale were C. W. C. Deering, C. C. von Hamm, A. J. Campbell, Norman Watkins, G.
 B. High, Mrs. W. F. Gaynor, Mrs. W.
 Thomas and Mrs. L. P. Turner.

FEDERAL CONTROL GIVEN APPROVAL

By a unanimous vote the public utilities committee of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting this morning recommended that there be a remedial legislation to permit a cooperative agreement under federal supervision in those industries which involve primary national resources on condition that the agreement in fact tends to conserve the resource, lessen accidents and promote the public's interest.

The matter was brought before them in a referendum from the national chamber of commerce. The recommendation will be presented to the members of the chamber for approval at a special meeting which will be called within the next two weeks.

The referendum means that the government will control the number of trees which are to be cut, the amount of coal and other minerals which shall be taken out of the mines and similar jurisdiction over the other national resources.

BROWN SAYS THERE WAS NO EVIDENCE AGAINST CHINESE

"The prosecution simply had no evidence whatever," said City Attorney A. M. Brown today, regarding the release by Circuit Judge Ashford yesterday of 36 Chinese charged with being present at a gambling game.

Absence of evidence to show that a gambling game actually was in progress when detectives and police broke into the room and arrested the defendants, appeared to be the principal reason for the dismissal of the case.
 The defendants were found guilty in police court and each fined in the sum of $15. They appealed to circuit court.

SEEKS YOUNG BOY TO BECOME NEW BUDDHA

[By Associated Press]
 PEKING, China.—One of the important "living Buddhas" of Mongolia, the old Kanchurwa Hutukhtu, recently died and his senior disciple, Lama Akewangyenlinpuleh, is now in Peking preparing to make a pilgrimage into Tibet in search of a young boy in whom the soul of the old Hutukhtu has been reincarnated.

The Chinese government has granted the Lama the use of a private car to the end of the government railway in Mongolia, and from that point he will proceed by caravan into Tibet, where he will search for a young Buddha to replace his old master.

Inquiries will be made by him in Tibet for boys born in a miraculous way, with divine signs, such as a red light or other forms of supposed divine manifestations, at about the time the old Hutukhtu passed away. All the boys thus secured will be then carried to Lhasa, where their names will be written on slabs of wood and placed in a golden urn. The boy whose name is first drawn out after the ceremony will be declared the re-embodiment of the dead Buddha.

PAYS BEREAVED HUSBAND

It is stated in the Japanese press that Attorney Paul Bartlett has paid to Y. Yahiro, husband of the woman whom he accidentally ran down and killed, $500 in settlement of any possible case. The accident, according to the coroner's jury, was unavoidable.
 The Choho comments unfavorably to the widower as to the amount which he received.

Good news! I will be one of the most talked of figures in town for the month of January—
